Read the following passage carefully. Then choose the correct answer and write its number (1, 2 or 3) in the brackets.

Kimi lived with her mother in a small house. Kimi's father had gone fishing for many days and had not come back. Kimi decided to set out to look^{for} her father. 1

After walking for half a day, Kimi rested by a river. Suddenly, she saw a fish flipping around as it was out of the water. She quickly picked it up and dropped it into the river. 5

"Thank you. I'll return your kindness one day," said the fish.

"How can a tiny fish help me?" laughed Kimi and went on her way.

Soon after, Kimi came to the sea. She looked all around for a boat but there was none in sight. Tired and sad, she sat on the shore and cried. 10

"Hello!" called a voice nearby, and the fish swam up. "I can help you," said the fish. "My friend, the whale, can take you over."

A whale magically appeared on the sea and floated towards Kimi. Kimi got onto it and apologised to the fish for what she had said earlier. Kimi and the whale then went together to look for her father. 15

Multiple-Choice and Open-ended Questions (5 x 2 marks)

Read the following passage carefully.

In Peter's bedroom, there were many new toys placed neatly on the shelves. One night, Peter played with them and went to bed without tidying up his room. 1

The next morning, Peter found that all the toys had been put back in their proper place. He was puzzled. 5

The following day, the exact same thing happened again. When Peter went to get one of his toys, it jumped out of his hands and said, "I don't want to play with you!" He could not believe his eyes.

"You always leave us on the floor after playing. We are sad that we have to climb back up the shelf on our own. We won't play with you until you promise to put us back before you go to bed," said a teddy bear. 10

Peter finally understood how badly he had treated his toys. Feeling sorry, he asked for their forgiveness. From that day, he always put them back nicely before he went to bed. 15

Section D: Comprehension (5 x 2 marks)

Read the following passage carefully. Choose the correct answer and write its number (1, 2 or 3) in the brackets.

Long ago, there lived an old couple in a village in Japan. Every day, the old man went into the forest to gather firewood so that his wife could cook their dinner.

One day, the old man did not return at the usual time. As the sky grew darker, his wife began to worry. She decided to go out to look for him. When she opened the door, a young man walked in.

5

"Who are you?" she cried out.

"Don't be silly," the young man replied. "I'm your husband."

"You are certainly not! My husband is an old man!" she exclaimed.

"But I am your husband," the young man insisted. "Sit down, and I'll tell you what had happened."

The man explained that he had come across a beautiful pool in the forest. He decided to take a rest there. The water looked so cool and inviting that he drank some of it. As he was leaving, he saw his own reflection in the water and realised that he had become young again.

15

"You must tell me where this pool is!" said the old lady with a smile.

Section F: Comprehension

Multiple-Choice and Open-ended Questions (5 x 2 marks)

Read the following passage carefully.

It was a dark and stormy night. A traveller reached an inn. As it was very late at night, he found the door locked. He knocked on the door.

The inn-keeper said, "The door cannot be opened unless you have a silver key with you."

5

The traveller understood what he meant by the silver key. He immediately slipped a silver coin under the door. Then, the door opened right after.

As soon as the traveller got in, he said to the inn-keeper, "I have left my box outside. Please bring it in for me." As the inn-keeper went out to bring the box in for the traveller, the traveller closed the door behind him. He wanted to teach the inn-keeper a lesson.

The inn-keeper asked him to open the door. Now, the traveller replied from inside the inn, "A silver key is needed to open the door." Soon, the silver coin was pushed again under the door and the dishonest man was let in. The traveller was happy that he got his silver coin back.
