Section G: Reading Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

It was a very hot day. "Son, please go and buy a packet of ice," Mother told Paul. "I am going to make a special dessert after dinner." Paul did not want to go because he was watching his favourite cartoon.

Mother insisted so Paul agreed. He walked to the supermarket to buy the ice. On the way home, he saw his friends at the playground.

"Paul, come and join us!" Paul's friends shouted. Paul left the packet of ice on the bench and ran to play with them. They had great fun playing together.

When it was time to go home, Paul picked up the packet of ice but it was full of water. There was no more ice for him to bring home. Paul was worried because he knew that he was in trouble.

For questions 31 - 33, read the sentences carefully. Choose the most suitable answer and write its number in the brackets.
