Read the passage carefully.

Miki Mouse was in his mouse hole all evening. The kitchen was quiet. There was nobody around. Miki looked out of the mouse hole. He moved slowly to the rubbish bin. He could smell the cheese. "There must be some cheese for me," he said. Just then he saw a little bird. It was sitting on a wooden box by the window.

"I wish I were a bird," Miki said. "I could fly anywhere I want." A red balloon heard him. "Hold on to me," the balloon said. "I can fly and you can come with me."

At that moment, Kitty the cat came into the kitchen. Miki ran as fast as he could when he saw Kitty.
