Once upon a time, there were three little monkeys. One day, they told their mother, "We are bored. It is a school holiday and we have nothing to do."

Mother said, "Oh yes, I have something for you to do. Grandma is coming for lunch and the house must be neat and clean."

The three little monkeys felt excited and started cleaning the house immediately. First, they folded their blankets. Next, they scrubbed the bathtub. Then, they cleaned the kitchen.

"Good job!" said Mother. "Grandma loves berries. Go and pick some from the bushes."

The three little monkeys carried their baskets and ran to the bushes. Soon, their baskets were full of berries. They then raced back home happily.

Jill likes watermelon because they are sweet and juicy. Her sister, Jane, likes apples as they are crunchy and sweet. Their mother's favourite fruit is the durian.

Every time when she buys durians, she has to make sure that her hands do not get pricked by the spiky thorns of the fruit. However, Jane and Jill do not like to eat durians as they find the fruit smelly. Their father likes to eat vegetable salads as they are healthy.

Whenever my mother goes to the market, she will buy a lot of fruit and vegetables. Sometimes, she fries the vegetables but sometimes she does not cook them. She tells us that some vegetables like lettuce and cucumber are best eaten raw.

After dinner, I will help my mother make a fruit salad. I will peel the skins of the bananas, oranges and apples before cutting them.

"Do no peel the skins off the apples as they contain lots of vitamins that are good for you," my mother tells me.
