Comprehension

Read the passage carefully.

There once lived a poor boy who had no money. He decided to ask for food from a house. A young girl opened the door. He felt ashamed but he asked for a glass of water.

The young girl saw he was hungry so she gave him a huge glass of milk. He drank the milk and asked, "How much do I owe you?" The girl replied, "You do not owe me anything. Just be a kind person."

Many years later, the poor boy grew up and became a famous doctor, Dr Kelly. One day, that girl, now a woman, fell ill and stayed in the hospital. She recovered but she could not pay the bill. She was surprised when she saw the bill. On it, Dr Kelly wrote, "Paid with a glass of milk! You do not owe me anything."

Adapted from the story of Dr. Howard Kelly
