Once, a farmer decided to sell his horse. On the way to sell it at the market, he saw a man with a cow.

“What a healthy-looking cow! Will you exchange it for my horse?” the farmer asked.

“Sure!” the man replied, delighted.

While crossing a bridge, the farmer passed by a woman carrying a goose.

“Would you exchange your goose for my cow?” he asked.

“Why, of course!” she answered.

Soon, the farmer came to a fruit farm and saw a boy carrying a large sack.

“What's inside?” asked the farmer.

“Rotten apples. I am throwing them away,” the boy answered.

“Take my goose,” the farmer said. “Last year, my old apple tree gave me only one apple. Now, I will have one whole sack!”

Section C: Comprehension (4 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Your answer must be based on the passage.

It is raining heavily outside. A poor fisherman is sitting on the floor of his wooden house, sewing up a hole in his fishing net. His wife and four children are sitting under a mosquito net in the corner of a room. They are trying to keep warm by rubbing their hands together.

The fisherman is feeling worried because he has not caught a single fish for the past month. The weather has been stormy and it is dangerous for him to go out to sea. The fisherman has already sold whatever there is in the house to put food on their old, broken table.

Tonight, the family is having mashed potatoes for dinner again. It is a simple meal but they are thankful for whatever they have. "I really hope that the storm will clear up soon and the sun will shine again," said the fisherman to his wife.
