Section C: Comprehension (4 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions. Your answers must be based on the passage.

Once, there lived Parrot, Squirrel and Goat. Every morning, Parrot would fly from the hills to meet Squirrel and Goat in the forest to play.

One day, a hunter left his village to look for food. He set up a trap to catch some animals. While Goat was on his way home, he stepped on the trap. He cried out in pain. Parrot and Squirrel rushed to help him.

Hearing Goat's cries, the hunter rushed towards the trap. When Parrot saw the hunter coming, he pecked the hunter's head. Screaming in pain, the hunter fled. Squirrel shouted, "I'll cut the trap with my sharp teeth!" Goat was finally free. He was thankful to have such helpful friends.

Section D: Comprehension (5 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions. Your answers must be based on the passage.

"Sam, why haven't you brushed your teeth?" Sam's mother asked him angrily. Though Sam did not like to brush his teeth, his mother always made sure that he brushed them twice a day.

One day, Sam's parents had a wedding dinner to attend. Since they were going to be home late, Sam spent the night at his grandparents' house.

Sam felt happy as he knew that his grandparents would not make him brush his teeth. However, something happened that night which made Sam change his mind. When Sam entered his grandparents' room to wish them good night, he saw his grandfather removing a set of teeth. "Did grandpa lose his teeth because he did not brush them?" Sam wondered.

After that night, Sam always brushed his teeth when he woke up in the morning and before he went to bed. His mother did not have to remind him again.
