I saw a bat in school last Friday. It was a huge surprise to me. I was walking around the school garden when it flew past me. I was curious about where it lived so I followed.

The bat flew up and down. It was so speedy that I had to run to catch up. Then, it flew round a tree and into a bush. I could not see it anymore! Disappointed, I decided to walk back to my classroom instead.

Suddenly, I saw a shadow. It was the bat! It flew into a shed. I ran to the shed. I could see a hoe, a spade and other gardening tools.

"Where is the bat?" I wondered.

Then, I heard something. I looked up. A family of bats hung from the roof. They were sleeping. I closed the door quietly and tiptoed away.
