Section G : Comprehension 1 (8 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 33 to 40.

Mr Tan was an elderly man who would take a stroll at the beach every morning. One particular morning, a storm had just passed. When Mr Tan arrived at the beach, he found it littered with starfishes.

Mr Tan walked along the beach and watched how people were treating the starfishes. Many people were observing and poking them. Just then, a young girl caught his eye. She would occasionally bend down to pick up a starfish and throw it into the sea as she walked along the beach. Curious, Mr Tan approached the girl and greeted her, "Good morning! May I ask why you are throwing the starfishes into the sea?" 5

"I'm saving the starfishes that have been washed up onto the beach during the storm. They can't return to the sea by themselves," the girl answered politely. 10

Mr Tan replied, "Isn't that a waste of time? There are too many starfishes for you to save. I'm afraid you won't be able to make much of a difference."

Hearing that, the girl picked up another starfish and threw it as far as she could into the sea. Then, she smiled and said to Mr Tan, "Well, it made a difference to that one!" 15

Mr Tan thought long and hard about what the girl had said. Inspired, he joined the girl in saving the starfishes one at a time.

Section H: Comprehension 2 (8 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 41 to 45.

Ben was walking through the park on his way home from school when he heard a strange sound coming from the bushes near him. Thinking that someone was playing a prank on him, he decided to investigate the source of the sound.

To his horror, he found a stray dog! He had a fear of dogs. Without hesitation, he threw a stone at the dog to get it away from him. That was a horrible mistake. The dog's eyes widened and it growled fiercely at him. 5

Panicking, Ben quickly took a step back to get away from the angry dog. Unfortunately, he did not notice a rock on the ground and tripped. Even though he had fallen down and was in pain, he knew he had to escape fast. However, he did not dare to move. "What should I do? The dog would only get angrier and chase me if I run," Ben thought. Desperate, he shouted for help. 10

Luckily, two passers-by in the park rushed to his rescue after hearing his cries. They quickly pulled the dog away from him, tied it to a tree and reported it to the Animal Rescue Centre. One of the passers-by also checked on him to make sure that he was not injured. 15

Ben thanked his rescuers profusely as he could have been seriously injured if not for them. He vowed not to anger any stray dogs in future. It was an important lesson learnt.
