Section C: Comprehension MCQ (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

Clement's family was getting ready for dinner when Father announced that the family would be visiting Legoland Nusajaya, Johor Bahru, during the June school holidays. Clement was elated by the news.
"Two more weeks to go!" cried Clement in anticipation of the upcoming trip. He began planning for the overnight trip immediately.	5
"Don't forget to study hard for your upcoming examinations before that, Clement. Dinner's ready," Mother reminded him.
"I won't, Mom," replied Clement, his senses already tingling with glee.
Soon it was time for the trip. As they drove towards the Tuas Checkpoint, Clement could see that there was a massive jam. Cars were lined up all the way back. His face fell. They would be stuck in traffic for quite a while. After two hours of slow-moving traffic, they finally cleared customs and were headed for their destination.	10
After crossing the toll barrier at Pak Kechil, Father suggested stopping at Niyor Mall in Tanjung Kupang for a toilet break. They finally arrived at Legoland after another half-hour drive. They checked in to the Legoland Hotel. Clement was amazed that the hotel looked like one giant Lego castle. His eyes lit up. There was even a Lego pirate ship in the lobby!	15
After a sumptuous lunch, Clement headed for the water park where he enjoyed himself tremendously with the Brick Blaster and Slide Racers. That evening, as he was about to fall sleep, he imagined what wonderful experiences he would have the following day.	20

Fill in each blank with a suitable word.

Cycling home from school one Thursday afternoon, Randy noticed a peculiar sight. Across the road, he saw his friends, Marshall and Jake, huddled (28)_____ an object lying on the field. This was indeed strange seeing the (29)_____ of them together because they were sworn enemies. They were always getting into arguments and fights so much so that Mr Lim, the discipline master, had to call their parents to school on numerous occasions. Randy decided to find (30)_____ what they were up to.

As he cautiously approached them, he noticed that Marshall had knelt down to gently (31)_____ up the object. Jake cupped his hands protectively as Marshall stood up. As Randy got closer, he noticed that the object was olive green and wriggling in Marshall's hands. It was a sunbird! It had an (32)_____ wing and was not able to fly.

The three boys were discussing how best to look after the bird. Finally, they decided that Marshall would take it home to nurse it back to health, with Jake's help of course. They bade farewell to Randy and continued their journey home, gently cradling the little bird.

A new friendship was made that day.

Section G: Comprehension OE (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

Ari's mother had asked him to gather firewood for the fire. Instead of doing the chore right away, Ari thought he could play with his friends, Mitch and Joe, first.
Not long after, his mother began to wonder why he had not returned. It was already dark and she was worried. At the same time, Ari realised that he had not done as she had asked and told his friends about this. The boys then began gathering the firewood.	5
Meanwhile, Ari's mother came looking for him. She soon heard the boys' voices. She had mixed feelings. She was happy to know that he was safe but annoyed at the same time because Ari had disobeyed her. She decided to teach the boys a lesson.	10
She hid in the nearby bushes. Then she picked up a twig and threw it. It hit the ground making a sharp noise. It caught the boys' attention. They stopped what they were doing and looked at one another. She threw another twig in the opposite direction. The boys jumped. The mother moaned in a low voice, "Listen to your mother!" Terrified, the boys dropped everything and scuttled home. Ari's mother could not stop laughing.	15
After picking up some pieces of firewood, she headed home, where she found Ari in tears.
"Mother, Mother, I'm sorry I didn't listen to you," he sobbed.	20
His mother held him with love. She knew he was truly sorry and would not repeat his mistake.
