Section H – Comprehension – Open-ended (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Last December holidays, Julie travelled to the Gold Coast. She was initially thinking of visiting the various theme parks and surfing at the beach there. However, in the end, she chose to see what farm life was like instead. It would be a good break from the city life she was used to in Singapore. She decided to spend a few days at a farm owned by Mr Carl who was her father's bosom friend.

5

Mr Carl's farm was nothing like the animal farms that Julie had seen on television. There were no pigs or cows on the farm. Instead, four kingly stallions stood proudly with their silky black manes swimming down their necks and pouring off their shoulders like inky waterfalls. Their brown coat and hooves glistened in the sunlight.

During her stay there, Julie looked forward to having dinner with Mr and Mrs Carl and their daughter, Rosemary, who was a renowned chef in a five-star hotel. Dinner, consisting of at least ten mouth-watering dishes, was personally prepared and served daily by her gracious hosts.

10

Being used to the hustle and bustle of city life and its late nights, Julie was puzzled when the dishes were cleared by 8 p.m. Within minutes, everyone went back to their rooms. She returned to her room and tossed and turned in bed till the wee hours of the morning.

15

However, once she got used to the routine of farm life, she started to enjoy her stay at the farm. She decided that farm stays would always have a place in her travel itinerary in the future.

20

Write your answers in complete sentences.

38. Why did Julie choose to stay on a farm?

39. How was Mr Carl's farm different from the other farms Julie knew about?

40. What does the phrase 'inky waterfalls' in line 9 refer to?

41. Which word in paragraph 3 has the same meaning as 'well-known'?

42. Why was Julie unable to sleep at first?
